TEMPERANCE COLUMN

Conducted by the W. C. T. U.

Marthew 5th chap, 11th verse will be ubject for discussion Friday afternoon at Mrs. Sheets. This subject is suitable in snewer to the Potter and Rainsford attacks. The meeting with Mrs. Bayne was so interesting that all present resolved not to miss another meeting. Mrs. Hackford presided and the "Parity of the Press" was ably discussed by mesdames Bayne, Boots, Boling, Tillman, Shoemaker, Jones, Roop, and Sheets. The Union distributed two bundred envelopes on the corner of each was a temperance motto neatly printed by Mr. Monroe. Several members gave subscriptions to the "Life Line"-a thousand was sent out in the county this month. Many thanks offered Mrs. Mr. and Mrs Jones spent Sunday Leiss for the literature she donated the union. The bad weather puts no damper on our efforts to do good.

Well, we love those dear boys whose names appeared in the Jasper News last a social Wednesday night at the week as belonging to the Anti Cigar-Matthews home. The house was well ette Club. We know they are all manly little fellows because it takes courage to refuse to use "coffie-nails." The league includes Canada and over 2000 boys everybedy has been benefited by his see more boys in Jasper sign it. Good helpful sermons. All had a good time people are fighting profanity, tobacco at the social and feel like having and whiskey everywhere, and never has so much been done.
